Magdaleno School of Baseball terms

Advertising with the Magdaleno School of Baseball must be, for the advertiser, out of a sense of duty to help the community. While advertising does afford some benefits, the higher purpose is to help the Magdaleno School of Baseball impart the values of teamwork, sportsmanship, and fair play to the children of the community, so that they may someday use these values in becoming good citizens.

Advertising in support of a team in the Magdaleno School of Baseball does not permit the advertiser to have any rights or responsibilities in the operation of the Magdaleno School of Baseball or any team of the Magdaleno School of Baseball, nor does the advertiser have any rights or responsibilities in the selection of managers, coaches or players for any team in the Magdaleno School of Baseball. The advertiser and the Magdaleno School of Baseball are independent contractors with respect to one another, and neither has any authority to represent or bind the other in any manner or to any extent whatsoever, except as noted on the advertising form.

Advertising does NOT give the advertiser the right to use the word “official” in connection with its advertising. Any reference to the advertising must make it clear that the advertiser is with the Magdaleno School of Baseball only, and NOT for any other purpose.

Thank you for supporting the players and their families of the Magdaleno School of Baseball Bucs!
